Daniel "Rudy" Ruettiger

The inspirational life story of Daniel "Rudy" Ruettiger was immortalized in the blockbuster film, "Rudy". Against all odds on a football field in Southbend, Indiana, "Rudy" carved his name into history books as perhaps the most famous graduate of the University of Notre Dame. Now as one of the most popular motivational speakers in the United States, Rudy shared with High Point University how he rose from valleys of discouragement and despair to the pinnacle of success. He left students, faculty, staff and members of the community with the message of "YES I CAN," and the inspiration to believe in their dreams.

Commencement

High Point University celebrated a highly successful 84th Graduation Ceremony on May 3. The university honored the extraordinary achievements of the graduates, and families and friends joined in the celebration, which was held on the front lawn of Roberts Hall. U.S. Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas gave an inspiring and thought-provoking Commencement address, encouraging students to always do their best and to show appreciation for those who have shared wisdom with them. Following the conferring of degrees, Lee Greenwood performed his hit song "God Bless the USA" at the ceremony. Challenger, a bald eagle, soared over the graduates and their guests as Greenwood performed — the eagle is named in honor of the Challenger space shuttle crew.

Senior Class President Paul Hannam not only delivered an outstanding speech but also delivered an outstanding proposal, asking his girlfriend to marry him.

Music Legend Lee Greenwood stirs up patriotic pride as he performs God Bless the USA.

Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas informs students that in order to achieve their goals, there is no substitute for hard work.

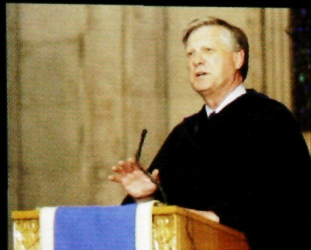

President Qubein inspires graduates during his commencement luncheon address.

Prowler the Panther aka Derrick Tanner poses for the camera as a proud graduate of High Point University.
